CONGRATULATIONS TO THE WINNERS OF THE 3 SENTENCE HORROR STORY CONTEST!

The winning stories are:

"The cold infused in my fingers and toes spreads painfully. Looking up, the moon unveils the truth: I let go. Tears carve rivulets down my windburnt cheeks as I fall, stinging all the way down. " - Caelyn McDonald

And

"The hospice nurse kept hearing her patient whisper at night, though he'd died three days ago and no one had come to collect the body. When she finally went in to silence the voice, the corpse's jaw was wired shut, but the whisper came from inside her throat, finishing the sentence he had been saying. "Your bed is next." – Anonymous (You know who you are)
