Hello EES Families,

I am sharing some news today that is both exciting and quite overwhelming for me.

I have been re-assigned to a newly created position...District Principal of Early Learning. This is a Ministry funded initiative with several school districts across the province posting similar positions. SD69 has opted to make this a part-time (60%) position, so I will maintain my connection with EES for the other part (40%) for the remainder of the school year. I will be transitioning to this new role right away.

Ms. Flo Wong (Vice-Principal) will assume many of my day-to-day duties at EES and we are working to fill Ms. Wong's teaching time. While we still need to work out details, I think I'll be at EES for a short time each day of the week.

While I am excited about this new opportunity, I am quite overwhelmed with emotion about reducing my time at EES. I value the connections I have with our staff, students, and parents. I come to our school and leave each day with an enormous sense of pride and joy to be part of something so incredibly important. This is my fifth year at EES and we have worked hard to build a strong and caring school community. I truly hope we can continue to maintain this, even though things won't be quite the same.

With much gratitude to our EES community, I hope you will embrace this new challenge alongside me!

Sincerely,

Sheila Morrison, Principal
Errington Elementary School
