Scholastic Book Fair will be here soon!

November 17th to 21st in our library

Scholastic Book Fair is November 17 to 21 in the NBES library. Students will visit the fair twice with their class: once to preview books and make a wish list, and the second time to purchase books. Please check with the classroom teacher for the dates and times of those visits.

The book fair will also be open at lunch recess Wednesday to Friday for students that were absent on the day that their class visited the fair. As well, the fair will be open after school for parents to shop, starting on Wednesday.

A portion of the proceeds from our book fair is returned to the school as Scholastic Book Fair rewards that are used to support our library and school.

We can only accept CASH or a cheque for purchases!

If you would like to volunteer to help and haven't already signed up through the PAC sign up, please email kmostad@sd69.bc.ca.

Thanks for your support!
